

---

Sunday,
March 5
2023

Beta Eta News

Issue #2

Yours In _kai_,1797

---

Gabriel “Gabe” Costarelli

The Ski Event is a Success!

The latest updates

Hello fellow brothers, Gabriel Costarelli -1797- here again, this time with the second edition of the Beta Eta newsletter. With this second edition comes some great updates, with stories such as the Rail Jam event put on by -1775-, otherwise known as brother spaghetti, and a new brother spotlight for this newsletter.

On February 24, 2023, brother Giacomo Pellizzari -1775-, had his vision come to life. In collaboration with the University of Maine ski team, Giac was able to show everyone that he knows how to do a Philanthropy event. He also showed everyone that we should never choose him to do a stand up comedy show because a lot of those jokes did not land. However, he was also able to somehow manage to get us sponsored by Mtn. Dew for the event which was actually super cool. They showed off their new energy drink at the event, and after drinking four of them within a 25 minute span I can confidently say that they will not give you super speed. All in all though, it was a really great event and although most people could not feel their toes by the end, everyone can agree that it was a good time.

Pictured above: The Rail Jam event hosted by us and presented by the UMSSBC. I took this picture from our instagram @beta_maine because my fingers were too cold to use my phone that day so I didn't take any pictures.

Gabriel “Gabe” Costarelli

The latest updates to get you through the day

The PNM's have bigs now. Brothers Peter Alexander, Mason Stagg, Griffin Leary, Zachary Riberio, Joey Connoly, Jake Heartquist, and Jason Bernaiche have all decided to take up the mantle of big brother this semester with hopes that they can leave a lasting impression on the future of this chapter. What I have to say to that is let's not make too good of an impression on them boys. I'm talking to you Zach, I better not see your little walking around barefoot. That being said, we do have our upcoming big-little hike happening soon, with much anticipation after last semesters big-little hike, hopefully this time around provides just as good a view. This year we hopefully will be going up the service trail, which is an actual road, instead of scaling the side of Mt. Everest.

Brother spotlight makes a return in this edition, and while the selection process was difficult, I can confidently say that the most deserving brother of this week's brother spotlight is Brother Kyle Stamoulis -1773-. Kyle is a junior and a business major, and may or may not be representing Beta for AOII's philanthropy event, Mr. Fraternity, later this fall. If you don't know, Mr. Frat is a sort of talent show for all of Greek Life to enjoy every spring semester. When I asked Kyle for a quote on what his potential talent may be, he said that “I am going to summon the lightning of Zeus and smite my enemies.” Okay Kyle, we get it, you're Greek. I did also ask Kyle about giving a quote in response to being nominated for this edition's brother spotlight and this is what he had to say “I am super honored to be selected for this very selective award. It is such a great honor to have this title. Yes yes, good good good.” Good job Kyle. Lastly, Kyle wanted me to let you readers know to “Check out Protein Pasta.” they sell it at the Local O.

Pictured above: Kyle Stamoulis holding limes. Kyle loves Limes. Kyle didn't need to grab a bag because he eats Protein Pasta! Protein Pasta is the alternative to regular old pasta if you want to get those gains.

---

Orono, ME Weather
The latest updates

Gabriel "Gabe" Costarelli

The weather has been quite normal lately. Sometimes it snows, sometimes it doesn't. I don't know, I'm not a meteorologist.

Beta Sleepout
The latest updates

Gabriel "Gabe" Costarelli

The sleepout is fast approaching, and after our last philanthropy event, expectations are set high. The sleepout has a date set. April 14th from 6pm to 6am. The GoFundMe link is here. <https://gofund.me/de98626b>

Sports
The latest updates

Gabriel "Gabe" Costarelli

Unfortunately, we have intramurals to report on because we don't know how to win so... no report.

---

